WHITE ATROCITY.

Nearly Makes Gen. Miles' Work Vain.

ANTON MURPER OF AN OLD CHIEF.

wboys Kill a Criendly and Aged Chief and Wound His Wife-The News Terriand Makes It Necessary to Postpone a Grand Review and Prepare for Emer-

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Jan. 20 .-When the treacherous whites in Bear Butte county wontonly murdered old Few Tails last week and wounded his squaw they committed an outrage that came near ruining Gen. Miles' plans and stampeding the 5,000 hostiles who are in camp here. Few Tails was a relative of Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses, the only hereditary chief in the Sioux nation, and the most powerful leader among his people. Few Tails' wounded squaw arrived here Sunday, and almost immediately there was a ommotion in the hostile camp

Complicates the Situation. The scouts reported the situation to Gen. files, who immediately sent runners after oung Man. When that chief appeared headquarters and learned of the inratitude of the whites for the beroic ork he had been doing in their behalf he sfused to be pacified, and it took all the iplomacy at the command of Gen. Mites win back finally the good will of the utraged chief. The situation has become complicated that the quartermaster has dered twenty days' additional rations, nd the troops that were expected to come the agency for a grand review have en ordered to remain in camp. An Indefensible Outrage.

This order for rations is as heavy as any hat has been issued since the war began. ew Tails was not only a relative of oung-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses, but other of Big Road, one of the most powful sub-chiefs at Pine Ridge. Big Road id yesterday that eighty cowboys had aughtered the little band as they were turning, unarmed, from an eagle bunt, aring with them Gen. Miles' pass peritting them to be off the reservation, d that the squaw of Few Tails was the ly survivor.

Fired Upon from Ambush. The little party was journeying southard and had just started on the morning the 11th. They had gone but a short tance when they were fired upon from abush by a party of whites. Few Tails l dead. One bullet pierced his brain, d another missile struck him in the east. His squaw was shot in the leg and east and probably fatally hurt. The ses of one wagon were also killed by volley. Few Tails' corpse lay in the hicle, while his squaw managed to crawl to the bushes, where she hid for a day before setting out on her painful transp to Pine Ridge, 100 miles away. The rest of the Indians abandoned the other wagon and fled, and it is supposed that they too, were slain.

THE ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.

Arrival of Ex-Governor Oglesby-Investigation Proceedings-The Lie Direct. Springfield, Jan. 20.—Uncle Dick Oglesby came to Springfield yesterday atternoon in charge of Senator Fuller, o, as chairman of the senatorial steercommittee, will manage his campaign. ex-governor took rooms at the Lead and received callers for a couple of ours, after which he went over and dined th Governor and Mrs. Fifer. Afterdiner he held quite a levee at his rooms in he Leland. Of course there is still much speculation as to how the "big three" will vote on senator, but it is impossible to say. Cockrell said yesterday that his instructions did not debar him from voting for Palmer as a last resort.

The Taubeneck Inquiry. The Taubeneck investigating committee of the house met yesterday and examined two witnesses, and then adjourned for the The witnesses were J. G. White head and W. F. Hollenbeck, of Marshall. Whitehead said that Hollenbeck had first old him of Taubeneck's career, and in order io confirm the story-that Taubeneck had erved two years in the penitentiary for counterfeiting-he had written a letter to a mend in Springfield, Mo., regarding the natter, and received a reply that Mr. Tanlepeck's name did not appear upon the reson record.

Called Whitehead a Liar. Hellenbeck was the next witness. He prefered his statement by saying that he kney nothing of the matter in hand, except that the preceding witness was a liar and that his falsehoods were mali cions. He had not told Mr. Whitehead anything about the charges against Mr. Tan eneck and had always understood that the rumors originated with Charles Taubeneck, an uncle of Representative Taubeneck, and that the circulation of these rumors was due to a family feud extending through a number of years. The uncle had said that detectives had searched his house and that of Representative Taubeneck's father in the hope of securing counterfeit plates.

The Butzow Case. The house election committee was in session vesterday almost up to the hour of convening the house when an adjournment was agreed upon. The matter will take two weeks to complete, as the committee has 7,000 ballots to count, record and verify. The depositions read in the case vesterday were directed to establishing the disqualification of a number of voters, and the effort resulted, as all like efforts have, in a clear stand-off.

Legislative Notes. The senate was not in session more than fifteen minutes last evening, and no imortant business was done. The house id nothing except quarrel for a time over be journal record of the disposition of the Harrison resolution Friday, but the atter was postponed until to-day. Both ouses adjourned until this morning.

Talked About the Indian Problem. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 29.-Over 3,000 peotried to gain admittance to the First sbyterian church Sunday night, where eeting was being held to discuss the administration of Indian affairs. T. Tibbles and his talented Indian wife, ight Eyes." who were sent to Pine ge during the recent trouble by The stigating the treatment of the Indi-, both spoke, as did also the Rev. W. J. ha, and the Rev. Joseph T. Duryea.

"DOC" WILSON REPORTED DEAD.

A Notorious Character Who Once Sued 'Barb-Wire" Moen.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 20.-Much excitement was caused in town Sunday by the circulation of the report that the famous "Doc" Levi Wilson, of Washburn-Moen fame, had been found dead in Arizona. The Arizona Republican, of Saturday, published in Phenix, A contains an account of the finding of a coroner's bly Excites the Reds at Pine Ridge july which investigated the death of a gambler known as "the New River Crazy Man." His body was found near Frog Tank, on the Aqua Fria, and the jury decided that he was "Doc" Wilson, formerly of this place. Doc Wilson was born of a low and obscure family in the village of Ar-

Married a Beautiful Girl. Passing his childhood in a cotton-twine factory, his teens in a stable, and his early manhood as a horse doctor and the landlord of a disreputable roadhouse, near Providence, as one of the richest men in New England he spent money lavishly, bought fine horses and equipages, entertained the governors of the state, built a palatial house at Uxbridge, Mass., and after various intrigues with women, mar ried the beautiful Miss Farnum, daughter of Caleb Farnum, one of the best known manufacturers in the Blackstone valley.

The Source of His Wealth. "Doe" was vulgar and ignorant, but he had plenty of money, the source of which for many years was a mystery. At length he began a suit against Phillip T. Moen, the millionaire wire manufacturer of Worcester. The secret, of course, of Wilson's great wealth was then exposed, for it came out that Moen had from time to time paid "Doc" immense sums, for what reason Moen would never disclose.

Said He Was Moen's Son. Wilson said he was Moen's son; that he was the rightful owner of a barbed-wire patent on which he was receiving an immense royalty, etc. After losing his last suit against Moen, the "Doc" attempted suicide. His wife secured a divorce and the custody of their two boys on the ground of cruelty and other charges, and since then Wilson has been a wanderer, though a Providence man saw him in New York a year ago. He was still plentifully supplied with money.

COLD-BLOODED ATROCITY.

A Wife-Killing Dastard who Didn't Have the Decency to Suicide. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 20,-Mrs. Wilbur F. Barker, teacher at the Bassett street public school, was shot five times yesterday by her husband in the class-room. He drove to the school in a sleigh with their 16-months-old child in his arms, walked into his wife's class-room, and said: "Is this the way you take care of you child?" Mrs. Barker went into the hallway. Her husband followed, and fired two shots at her. She reached another class-room, and then fell on the floor. Barker put the baby on the floor, and, leaning over his wife, fired at her several times, five shots taking effect.

The Demon Jealousy Again. Barker then drove rapidly away, and at 1 p. m. the police were twenty minutes behind him at Jamesville. The couple had been married about two years, and jealousy on Barker's part is the supposed cause of the tragedy. They only lived to-gether a short time after their marriage. Mrs. Barker was taken to the House of the Good Shepherd. It could not be told whether her injuries are fatal. She was shot three times in the head and face, once through the left hand, and once through the left thigh. Barker left the baby in the school room.

CONDOLENCE OF THE KAISER

The German Emperor Wires His Sympathy to the Bancroft Family.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 20.-Among the telegrams of condolence received at the Bancroft mansion is one from the emperor of Germany, transmitted through the German legation in this city, as follows: SIR:-His majesty the emperor and king, remembering the relations of friendship which for many years existed between his majesty the late Emperor William and the late Hon. George Bancroft as minister of the United States to Berlin, has directed me to express to you and to your family his most sincere sympathy with the great loss that has fallen upon you and upon your country.

The Funeral of the Historian. Mr. Bancroft's body was borne to St. John's church this morning, where the service for the dead was performed. The body was then sent forward to Worcester, Mass. The pall bearers were; Chief Justice Fuller, Justice Field, Justice Blatchford. Senator Evarts, Mr. Bayard, Admiral Rodgers, Mr. Spofford, Mr. George William Curtis and Mr. John A. King. The flags on the executive buildings were at half mast and the secretary of the navy issued a general order expressive of regret at the death of Mr. Bancroft, Alliance Trouble in Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 20.-A special to The Star from Topeka, Kan., says: The war which was begun on Frank Mc-Grath, president of the Farmers' Alliance, soon as the Turner letter had been published, has broken out anew and threatens to play havoc with all caucus agreements. The judiciary committee which investigated McGrath's alleged connection with the Turner letter, has, after more than a week's deliberation decided to request the president's resignation and the president has fully decided that he will stay until he is put out, as there is no provision in the Alliance constitution by which he can be ousted.

A Chance for Dougherty.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 23 -Judge Bartlett came on the bench yesterday morning in the court of over and terminer with the intention of sentencing Dougherty, who shot and killed D. Lloyd at the insane asylum, Flatbush, according to the verdict of the jury or murder in the second degree, holding that he knew the nature of the act; but when Dougherty arose and addressed to court, he changed his mind and appointed a commission to examine the prisoner.
